QUALITY POLICY

St. Dominic Savio's High School

Is dedicated and committed to pursue standards of excellence in all our endeavours namely teaching and holistic development of students and providing quality education and to remain accountable in its core and support functions, through processes of self-evaluation and continual improvement.

Shall comply to all applicable legal and other requirements in developing students to excel in academics and non-academic fronts and values through continuous improvement of school's academic and non academic programs, administrative systems and other support services.

Shall provide healthy and safe environment to prevent mishap, minimize risk and health hazards thereby creating awareness about the safety, health and environment to all our interested parties.

Shall review our Quality Policy and Objectives on regular basis and shall communicate the same to all our interested parties.

Shall aspire to develop outstanding students who use discipline, motivation and self direction to reach their fullest potential.

Shall therefore achieve our goals by providing training for students, teachers and other support staff to create a democratic environment and teamwork spirit, as well as a positive caring atmosphere across the entire school.
